

SOUPERGIRL KASHRUT CERTIFICATION

This letter is to certify that Soupergirl, located at 314 Carroll Street, NW, Washington, DC, is a kosher establishment that operates under the strict Orthodox rabbinical supervision of Rabbi Shmuel Herzfeld.

In accordance with the recommendation standards of the Orthodox Union (O-U) for non-meat restaurants, a mashgiach temidi is not required; instead, the premises is spot-checked and carefully inspected by duly qualified mashgichim (including rabbis of local Orthodox synagogues) on a regular basis to ensure meticulous compliance with kashruth regulations. 24-hour surveillance cameras have also been installed whereby activity in the store can be monitored by the mashgichim when they are not physically present on site.

All food prepared in the store is bishul Yisrael and all vegetables and greens are checked and cleaned according to the standards and recommendations of the Star-K. Baked goods sold in the store are provided by Breadsmith, which is under the supervision of the Rabbinical Council of Greater Washington. All products sold by Soupergirl are parve.

Please note that while we follow the standards and recommendations of the O-U and Star-K, they are not responsible for the kashruth supervision of Soupergirl. That responsibility rests with Rabbi Herzfeld. He can be reached at 202 812 8900.
