

Soupergirl NEW - A fusion of modern flavors and old fashioned cooking techniques, Soupergirl, is soon opening its first retail store in Takoma, DC. A team effort between creator Sara Polon and her mom, Marilyn Polon, aka Soupermom, Soupergirl will offer Soupergirl's homemade soups and salads that feature seasonal, fresh ingredients from local farmers, as well locally sourced breads and baked goods. All of Soupergirl's soups, salads and baked goods are vegan and are under orthodox kosher supervision, a nod to Sara's vegetarian lifestyle and Jewish upbringing. Some of Soupergirl's creative offerings include: Sing a Song About Watermelon Gazpacho with watermelon, tomato, cucumber and jalapeno; "Cream" of Asparagus made with vegan-friendly cashew cream; and Jamaican Me Crazy Sweet Potato Soup with sweet potatoes, coconut milk, and dark rum just to name a few. Meals can be enjoyed in the open dining area or be made available for pick up to take home. (314 Carroll Street, NW)

PROJECTED OPENING DATE: September 7, 2011
